While fans were clamoring to get just a glimpse of Brad Pitt and son Pax Thien, 6, on their recent trip to Dave & Busters, we were stuck staring at Pax's super cute all-black ensemble.

Decked out in a skull print hat, puffy vest, football jersey, athletic pants and cozy moccasins, the stylish kid was the picture of New York City slick.

Love the outfit as much as we do? You're in luck. We found similar pieces — all for under $50.

Check below for our Look for Less!

Shoes: To maintain his casual style, Pax opted for a cozy pair of light tan slip-ons. Minnetonka's suede Lined Moccasins for kids ($27) are a darker brown, but they're just as toasty!

Vest: Pax braved the cold in a ski jacket with a fleece-lined inner lining. This fleece-lined Hooded Puffer Vest ($26) from Gymboree offers the same sporty look without breaking bank!

Shirt: There's nothing like showing a bit of love and support for your favorite team. And Pax did just that with his New Orleans Saints Football Jersey ($33). His team of choice is no surprise. In addition to the family owning a residence in the French Quarter, dad Brad is also actively involved in rebuilding the hurricane-torn city.

Looking for a more budget-friendly version? Try Football America's jersey ($14.99) in black.

Pax Jolie-Pitt's sporty style is featured as the look-of-the-day, with Minnetonka's Pile Lined Slipper featured as how to get the "Look For Less!"
